BY-LAWS AND CONSTITUTION

—AS—

Amended and Corrected to Date.

I. The name of this club shall be the Royal Military College Club.

II. The objects of the club are the bringing together of its members for their mutual benefit and support, the encouragement of the maintenance of that brotherly and friendly feeling which has always existed among cadets, and the advancement of the welfare of its members and the graduates of the Royal Military College generally.

III. The headquarters of the club shall be at Ottawa.

IV. The annual meeting of the club shall be held some time during the winter months.

V. To be eligible for membership, gentlemen must have served for at least two years at the Royal Military College of Canada as cadets.

VI. The officers of the club shall be a president, a vice-president, and a secretary-treasurer, who shall be elected at the annual meeting.

VII. In addition to the officers of the club (who shall, ex-officio, be members of the committee) there shall be elected at the annual meeting a managing committee composed of five members.

VIII. The Commandant of the Royal Military College may be elected at the annual meeting honorary President of the club.

IX. The senior cadet in the Royal Military College should be an honorary member of the club.

X. Honorary members are entitled to no privileges in the committee or club except to speak for the good and welfare of the club.

XI. The annual subscription shall be one dollar ($1.00) payable in advance.

XII. Any member shall be eligible for election as a life member on payment of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) in one sum. N.B.—Fees derived from life members shall be invested, and the interest only shall be used for ordinary purposes.

XIII.—The president, or in his absence the vice-president, shall take the chair, or in their absence a chairman shall be elected at any meeting of the club.

XIV. A majority of those present at a meeting and voting shall decide all questions except the alteration of the constitution.

XV. The chairman of a meeting shall sign the minutes of the previous meeting after they have been confirmed and adopted.

XVI. The duties of the secretary-treasurer shall be to keep correct minutes of the proceedings of all meetings of the club, and to receive all moneys.

(2). He shall keep a book, showing the names, addresses and employments of all the members of the club.

(3). He shall conduct all the correspondence of the club.

(4). He shall furnish members desiring it the names and addresses of any members.

(5). He shall, when so required, write to members and others obtaining any information which may facilitate the finding of employment or the advancing of the welfare of any member.

(6). He shall furnish all members with a copy of the proceedings of the annual general meeting.

(7). He shall notify all members of the time and place of holding meetings.

(8). He shall pay out all moneys upon vouchers certified by and approved of by the president or chairman of the committee.

XVII. The managing committee shall meet at such times as they may think necessary, or the business before them may require. They shall fill up any vacancies in the committee.

XVIII. Three shall form a quorum at a committee meeting.

XIX. No member shall be allowed to take part in any proceedings of the club, or vote on any subject connected therewith, until he shall have paid all arrears and subscriptions which may be due by him.

XX. Any member wishing to withdraw from the club shall give notice to that effect to the secretary-treasurer, and shall pay all arrears due by him up to the date of such notice.

XXI. Each member must notify the secretary-treasurer at least once a year of his address and any change thereof.

XXII. The constitution of the club may be added to, altered or amended by a two-thirds vote at the annual general meeting.

XXII. Any member who shall conduct himself in such a manner as to bring discredit or dishonor upon the club shall be liable to be struck off the list of members.

The case must be investigated and decided on by the committee, subject to appeal to the club at the next annual general meeting.
